FDD Abstract of [REDACTED]

DISTRIBUTION OF MILK, EGGS AND HONEY (German; 7 pp; undated)

[REDACTED] 25X1X

This seven-page typewritten ~~document~~ document consists of tables showing stocks of certain agricultural products to be obtained through compulsory deliveries and by purchases, for the GDR, the five Laender and Berlin, for the second quarter of 1952. The agencies to which these products are allocated are also indicated. The first two pages are the tables for cattle, the next two for pigs, the fifth and sixth page for eggs, and the last page for honey.

The cattle and pigs are distributed to the Ministry of Food, Tobacco and Beverages, to people-owned enterprises, to cooperative enterprises, to the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry, and to private industry.

The eggs and honey are distributed to HO stores, HO restaurants, consumers cooperatives, private retail stores, and to several ministries.

During the second quarter of 1952, the following amounts will be distributed: 64,200 tons of cattle, 27,400 tons of pigs, 644,341,344 eggs, and 331,185 [kilograms] of honey.
